

NOTICE

PROVINCIAL COURT OF MANITOBA

RE: COURT ATTIRE

In response to some inquiries from practitioners as to the appropriate dress that members of the bar should observe when attending Provincial Court while gowned in their barrister's attire, the Provincial Court does not require that counsel wear their gown, (although they are certainly entitled to do so), but they are asked to observe the minimum standard of waistcoat, shirt and tabs.

ISSUED BY:

Original signed by

Chief Judge Raymond E. Wyant
(Manitoba)

DATE: May 25, 2007