

NOTICE

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF MANITOBA (FAMILY DIVISION)

RE: ADJUSTMENT TO CURRENT SCHEDULING PROTOCOLS – JANUARY 11 TO 29, 2021 FOR THE FAMILY DIVISION

I. Adjustments to Current Scheduling Protocols – January 12- 29, 2021

Given the ongoing situation respecting the pandemic and the restrictive health orders in place, this is to advise that the adjustments to the Court's scheduling practices for Family Division Proceedings as announced in the December 3, 2020 Practice Direction will now also extend and apply to the period of January 12 to 29, 2021.

All currently-scheduled Family and Child Protection trials set to proceed between Tuesday, January 12, 2021, and Friday, January 29, 2021, where all parties are not represented by counsel, will be adjourned to an administrative list for rescheduling on Friday, January 29, 2021.

All currently-scheduled Family and Child Protection trials set to proceed between Tuesday, January 12, 2021, and Friday, January 29, 2021, where all parties are represented by counsel will continue presumptively to be heard via video conference in accordance with the Practice Direction issued December 3, 2020.

All other judicial services currently being offered by the Court of Queen's Bench Family Division by video or audio conference will continue as before, unchanged.

Coming into effect

This Practice Direction comes into effect immediately.
