RE: STONY MOUNTAIN INSTITUTION CHARGES

Effective immediately, all criminal charges originating from Stony Mountain Institution will be dealt with in Winnipeg and will no longer appear on the Stonewall Provincial Court docket. This change reflects the public interest in ensuring matters requiring a heightened level of security are heard in the most appropriate court venue. This Notice applies to all appearances including trials, preliminary hearings and dispositions. Matters where release is opposed will continue to appear in bail triage court. Matters where an individual is released on the charge(s) by the police, but remain in custody serving a sentence will appear on the Legal Aid Administrative docket for first appearance and until counsel is confirmed. This docket sits the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 9:30 a.m. in courtroom 402, 408 York Avenue.
